

Florida Hurricane Recovery

Nov. 19, 2024

Key Messages

- After you apply for federal disaster assistance, it is important that FEMA be able to contact you.
- Be aware that phone calls from FEMA may come from unidentified or out of area numbers.
- If there are changes in your phone number, current address, banking or insurance information, please let FEMA know as soon as possible or you may miss important telephone calls or correspondence.

Stay In Touch with FEMA

After you apply, let FEMA know if anything changes. You can make updates in your online account on DisasterAssistance.gov at any time to do the following:

- Update your personal information and needs
- Review your disaster assistance application
- See letters FEMA sends you
- Get details about additional documents FEMA may need to process your application or appeal
- Upload documents to support your application or appeal

You can also call the FEMA Helpline: 800-621-3362 or visit a Disaster Recovery Center for in-person assistance.

By the Numbers

- 8,252 Blue roofs have been installed by the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers.

FEMA Sheltering and Housing Solutions

FEMA Seeks Property Owners for Hurricane Survivors in Florida Communities

- FEMA is seeking vendors for its Direct Lease and Multifamily Lease and Repair programs for temporary housing for individuals and families in Florida displaced by Hurricanes Helene and Milton. FEMA will host a virtual informational session starting at 1:00 p.m. EST on Thursday, Nov. 21 via Zoom. Vendors attending the event will learn of requirements for leasing directly through FEMA to house disaster survivors. Pre-registration is required. To register go to: fema.zoomgov.com/webinar/register/WN_e6LvdiZxO3ulbM2f9fsXHQ#/registration

Transitional Sheltering Assistance

- Transitional Sheltering Assistance (TSA) is available for Floridians displaced by Hurricane Helene or Hurricane Milton in 52 counties and for tribal members of the Miccosukee Tribe of Indians. Residents in these counties who have applied for disaster assistance may be eligible to stay temporarily in a hotel or motel paid for by FEMA. Applicants do not need to request TSA. FEMA will notify them of their eligibility through an automated phone call, text message, and/or email. Survivors who have been approved for TSA can find hotel options here: Transitional Sheltering Assistance \(TSA\)

Disaster Recovery Centers

- Disaster Recovery Centers are open in 30 counties to help survivors apply for assistance, answer questions and provide access to resources from other agencies. All centers are accessible to people with disabilities or access and functional needs and are equipped with assistive technology. Survivors do not need to visit a center to apply for assistance. Survivors are encouraged to apply online at DisasterAssistance.gov or by downloading the FEMA App. FEMA does not distribute cash at Disaster Recovery Centers.

FEMA is Hiring

- Join the team that helps people before, during and after disasters. FEMA is hiring more than 600 local hire positions in Gainesville, Melbourne Beach, Sarasota and Tallahassee. Visit USAJobs.gov, type “FEMA” and “Local Hire” in the keywords section and “Florida” for location.

U.S. Small Business Administration

- The U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) offers low-interest disaster loans for homeowners, renters, businesses and nonprofit organizations to cover losses not fully compensated by insurance and other sources. Apply online at SBA.gov/disaster. Disaster loan information and application forms can also be obtained by calling the SBA’s Customer Service Center at 800-659-2955. To learn more, visit www.sba.gov.

How to Apply for FEMA Assistance

- If you sustained damage or loss from Hurricanes Milton or Helene, FEMA may be able to help. You may be eligible for financial assistance for displacement, serious needs, temporary lodging, basic home repairs, personal property losses and other uninsured disaster-related expenses.
 - ✓ Quickest way to apply is online at DisasterAssistance.gov.
 - ✓ Or use the FEMA App for mobile devices.
 - ✓ You can also call the FEMA helpline at 800-621-3362.
- 2024 Application deadlines: Hurricane Helene Nov. 27; Hurricane Milton Dec. 11
- Florida residents affected by Hurricane Helene or Milton do not need to wait for a visit from FEMA Disaster Survivor Assistance teams before applying for assistance.
